

JAMES MADISON COLLEGE RESOURCES

Advisors: Madison faculty and academic staff are your FIRST STOP for all questions related to the academic program, course selection and scheduling, choice of major, internship and career opportunities, difficulties in your life that may pose obstacles to academic success, and College and University Resources. You will receive an email from the College informing you of your academic advisor. If you lose this information, please use the online academic advising tool on the JMC website (jmc.msu.edu). This can be found under the Advising section of the Current Students page.

Field Experience Office: During the sophomore and junior years, students should consult with the Field Experience Coordinator and explore more than 500 internship opportunities in the U.S. & around the world. For more information or to make an appointment see the website at jmc.msu.edu/fieldexperience.

Career Services: James Madison has its own career consultant (in Case Hall!) whose role is to assist students in exploring potential career paths, preparing for professional opportunities during and after college, and making connections to put their career plans in motion. Visit jmc.msu.edu/career to learn more.

JMC Writing Consultancy: Experienced peer consultants help with academic paper critique, resume writing, and general writing skills. In addition to one-on-one consulting, Madison hosts a variety of workshops and classroom presentations, such as “Reading a Complicated Text,” “Writing in the Major,” and “How to Peer Review,” to help Madisonians gain a better understanding of reading and writing in the social sciences. The Writing Consultancy is located in room 230 S. Case and their hours are posted on their website: jmc.msu.edu/wc.

Public Affairs Aides: Upper-level James Madison students who serve as peer resources to students in MC 201. Office hours will be announced in lectures and section meetings.

James Madison College Statement on Non-JMC Mutual Roommate Requests

1. James Madison College’s first priority is to assign all first-year JMC students to Case Hall.
2. Housing Assignments Office and James Madison College will honor mutual non-Madison roommate requests if space is available in Case Hall.
3. If space for the non-James Madison College roommate is not available in Case Hall then the non-James Madison College student will be assigned to another residence hall, and the roommate requests will not be honored.
4. For more information, please visit www.LiveOn.msu.edu
5. Room and roommate assignment notifications will be sent in early August by the Housing Assignments Office.
6. James Madison College staff does not have access to housing assignment information.
