Join Us at Case Hall this Saturday for an Alumni Reception

JMC Alumni Career Day is Saturday, January 29th
The reception is open to all alumni, even if you are not on a panel 4:30 PM - 6:00 PM
Club Spartan, 3rd floor of Case Hall
This is a good opportunity to catch up with other alumni and provide advice to current students. We have over 40 alumni on panels and expect over 150 students to attend. We hope to see you there!

Alumni Nominations Sought
The JMC Alumni Association Board of Directors sponsors two annual awards to honor distinguished alumni and friends of the college. The Distinguished Alumni and Honorary Alumni awards acknowledge individuals who have positively represented the college or have significantly contributed to the progress of the college.

MSU’s International Relations Organization Launches Facebook Page MSUIRO has created the page to provide opportunities for students and alumni to reconnect with the organization. Join the MSU-IRO-Alumni page. MSUIRO will be attending the MCMUN conference hosted by McGill University in Montreal from January 27-30th and hopes to bring back several awards! Please visit msuiro.org to see the award winners of this conference, as well as in past conferences.

Alumnus Richard Cordray (JMCD ’81) is taking the top post with federal consumer protection bureau in Washington DC. He will head the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection.

Alumnus Matthew Schneider (IR ’96) has been named chief of staff and general counsel to the Michigan Supreme Court. He succeeds JMC alumnus Michael Gadola (IR ’85) as general counsel and Carl Gromek as chief of staff. Gadola was named legal affairs director for Michigan Governor-elect Snyder. Schneider most recently worked in the public corruption unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office in Detroit, where he has prosecuted members of organized crime and outlaw motorcycle gangs. From The Detroit News.

JMC Professor Bryan Ritchie is director of the ENet, a new business incubator in East Lansing. He discusses the endeavor in a recent Lansing State Journal article, "Grants fuel entrepreneurial spirit at
