Alumni News
Alyssa Meyer (IR/PTCD '11), native of Prudenville, Michigan, has been awarded a Fulbright U.S. Student
Program scholarship to Kyrgyzstan in Energy by the United States Department of State and the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board. Meyer will use her grant to conduct independent research in Russia on the feasibility of using alternative sources to provide for Kyrgyzstan's energy security. Meyer is one of over 1,700 U.S. citizens who will travel abroad for the 2012-2013 academic year through the Fulbright U.S. Student Program.

Madison Freshmen Welcome Week Activities
The book read by this year's 315 incoming freshmen was The Kingdom of This World, by Alejo Carpentier. They also participated in the annual JMC community service event on a beautiful August 27th afternoon. With the help of 50 upperclassmen, they worked at such places as the Lansing Food Bank Garden Project, Potter Park Zoo, Fenner Nature Center, Capitol Area Literacy Coalition, and Haven House. See photos.

Alumni-Student Pizza Night
Over 130 students and 14 alumni attended this annual event on September 6, providing an informal opportunity for new and returning Madison students to meet alumni and learn about their careers paths. Alumni engagement is a key to the success of JMC and its students. See photos.

Uniquely James Madison College
James Madison College at MSU offers sophisticated multidisciplinary programs in the social sciences founded on a model of liberal education and designed to prepare students for law school, graduate study, decision-making roles in public and private enterprise, and careers in government, media, politics, social services, public administration, education, business, and the foreign service. Students examine how public policy problems are identified, analyzed, and resolved in the US and globally. It is an unusual, exciting, innovative place where students and scholars examine and debate important public affairs issues.
