

Intern with U.S. Senator Gary Peters' Campaign!

Team Peters is seeking energetic and hard-working finance interns to aid in Senator Peters' campaign for re-election to the U.S. Senate. Our ideal candidate is passionate about politics and has an interest in campaign fundraising. Interns should have the ability to work in our office in Southfield and the flexibility to attend weekend events as needed.

Responsibilities:

- Contact prospective donors through mail, email, and phone calls
- Staff weekend events and assist with event planning and set-up
- Use NGP and ActBlue to manage and gather information about donors and funds raised
- Develop donor files and maintain donor relationships
- Assist campaign staff with other duties as needed

Qualifications:

- Ability to commit at least 6-10 hours a week
- Interest in campaign fundraising
- Proficiency in Google Drive applications
- Strong communication and writing skills
- Flexibility to work events on weekends in various parts of Southeast Michigan

Sessions:

- Spring: January-May
- Summer: May-September
- Fall: September-December

To apply, please send a resume and cover letter to laura@petersformichigan.com and include information about your availability, why you are interested in the position, and how your past experience with campaigns, extracurricular activities, or the private sector would prepare you for work on this campaign.
